

Helpful Answers

Give students, faculty, and staff instant access to resources and policy guidance about Title IX offenses and provide options for survivors, friends and your faculty/staff.

ABOUT TITLE IX OFFENSES

Helpful Answers is a key uSafeUS Feature

- Places trauma- and research-informed guidance in the hands of students seeking assistance.
- Provides campus-customized help, options, and policies to guide students before they are ready to talk or as a reminder after reporting or counseling.
- Answers student questions about common medical, psychological, and reporting concerns that stem from sexual violence.
- Presents information for different types of violence, from three different perspectives: survivors, their friends/family, and faculty/staff.
- Ensures your campus community always has essential sexual violence prevention and response information when needed.

Helpful Answers is an excellent reminder for faculty/staff.

Reinforce and amplify Annual Title IX Training to support students who may disclose sexual violence.

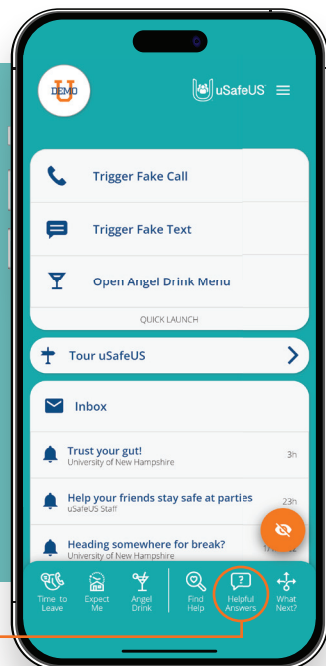

Helpful Answers provides succinct reminders, year-round, along with links to campus policies and contacts.

Helpful Answers is easily customized and updated.
